Summer Jobs+ 2015

Youth Resource Fair

April 11th

Do you want to help young people reach their potential and build the next generation workforce? San Francisco Mayor Ed Lee has challenged employers to put youth to work this summer, and we are looking for volunteers to support this effort at the Youth Resource Fair on Saturday, April 11th!

The City of San Francisco, United Way of the Bay Area, Department of Children, Youth & Their Families, Office of Economic and Workforce Development, and San Francisco Unified School District are hosting Summer Jobs+, a city-wide program to put 7,000 youth to work. The Youth Resource Fair is an opportunity for young job seekers to interview with San Francisco employers, get help building their career and find a summer opportunity.

We need VOLUNTEERS to help with the following:

Hiring managers, store managers, HR and other professionals to conduct mock interviews and coach young people at the Resource Fair.

Professionals to provide resume feedback and preparation support on this essential first step in finding a job.

Volunteers to help with youth registration, greeting participants, and shepherding youth through the day's events.

Event information:

Saturday, April 11, 2015

Moscone Center South, 747 Howard Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

Shift is from 9:30am-3:00pm; breaks and lunch will be provided PLEASE ARRIVE ON TIME
