TECHSF Connecting Talent and Opportunity.

2021-2023 TechSF Providers

Name of Organization	What They Provide	Who They Serve
bavc BAY AREA VIDEO COALITION	• BAVC provides Web Development, Video and Audio Pre & Postproduction, Digital Marketing, and Graphic & Web Design courses for current TechSF Apprentices. • BAVC is a TechSF Hub location and can provide information about TechSF programs.	• Adults 18 years of age and older who are active TechSF Apprentices
BAYCAT EDUCATE • EMPLOY • ENTERTAIN	• Technical training and hands-on experience on video production through Academy Internships and monthly workshops. • Interns learn DSLR workflow, editing in Adobe Premier, Motion Graphics and job preparedness skills. • Monthly Workshops provide pre-production, production with DSLR, Post Production editing with Adobe and career planning. • BAYCAT participates in Work-Based Learning opportunities.	• Young adults ages 17-24
CODE TENDERLOIN	• Front-End Web Development (HTML, CSS, and JavaScript) offered through a 5-week Code Ramp Course and an advanced Code Ramp++ Program. • Basic Computer Literacy Skills and Media Bootcamp, providing hands-on computer and media training. • Job Readiness Training including mock interviews, job shadows and career readiness.	• Adults 18 years of age and up

TECHSF
Connecting Talent and Opportunity.

Name of Organization	What They Provide	Who They Serve
	• Curriculum is comprised of 3 main competencies: an Intro to A+ PC Technician Certification, Intro to Programming and career skills. • Students receive a combination of classroom instruction, hands on training and networking opportunities. • Dev Mission participates in Apprenticeship opportunities.	• Young adults ages 17-24
	• Goodwill is a TechSF Hub location and can provide information about all TechSF partner programs. • Job Readiness Training focused on digital skills.	• Young adults and adults ages 17 years and upward
	• JVS serves as the TechSF Coordinator as well as a TechSF Hub location, providing information about all TechSF partner programs. • Offers a Salesforce Administrator 14-week course with technical training, hands-on training and career readiness preparation. • Participants will prepare for the Salesforce Administrator Certification Exam through user management, security, business process automation and data management trainings. • JVS participates in Apprenticeship opportunities.	• Adults 17 years of age and up

TECHSF
Connecting Talent and Opportunity.

Name of Organization	What They Provide	Who They Serve
five keys schools and programs	• Five Keys will provide digital literacy training, technology certifications, pathways, and industry aligned curriculum to both formerly and currently incarcerated, and current Five Keys students who are pursuing their high school diploma.	• 17 years of age and up
:meda	• Mission Techies, a program of MEDA providing basic computer programming and software skills, trainings including front and back-end development, HTML, CSS, Terminal, JavaScript and others. • Provides career coaching, resume writing, interview preparation and job/internship referrals.	• 17 years of age and up
missionbit	• Coding Courses, Core Programming Concepts and Game Development. • Mission Bit participates in Work-Based Learning.	• High school students & Young adults ages 17-24
CITY COLLEGE OF SAN FRANCISCO	• The Computer Networking and Information Technology (CNIT) Department offers a variety of degrees and certificates that prepare you to seek employment in entry-level network administration, computer technical support, cybersecurity, and web development positions. • The Department also offers courses that prepare students for well-known industry certificates such as: CompTIA A+, Cisco CCNA, EMCISA, CEH, CISSP, AWS Cloud Practitioner, and others.	• 17 years of age and up
Upwardly Global	• Provides training in IT, Network Systems Admin, Software Engineering and Web Development. • Upwardly Global participates in Pre-Apprenticeship opportunities.	• Immigrant and/or refugee professionals with an international bachelor's degree or higher